I mean all memes aside, if Trump broadcasted something like this I'm positive that he would muster the support of enough of the public to back his words up... the more I think about it the more it seems likely that with one directly worded message Trump could muster enough of the public from across the USA to flood the streets of DC

I wonder if Trump's opposition realistically understands the support he has behind him? If so than that would explain their scrambled together, patchwork disinformation campaigns... they must be petrified of Trump making that message that we are crossing the Rubicon!

I would think many from other countries would be there too. I think there are Trump supporters all over the world.

They don't believe it can happen.

But if he were to declare Martial Law in DC alone and told armed patriot to flood for a caravan "march" to Georgia, Pennsylvania and Michigan in the snow, you would have at least 2 million men ready to do it.

To do it on or after January 6th is a huge fucking error.

The plan is to arrive 1PM 1/4, be in place before Congress tries to get to their meeting 1/6. Show them who to be afraid of. SCOTUS gets that same shakeup, too. Clog the streets in our vehicles so nothing can move. Load for bear. Do not comply.

Stay til 1/20, inauguration day. Waiting til after that would be the mistake. Resolution coming through normal channels should be before 1/6. Now is time to demonstrate at all State Capitols, today at noon, barrage State legislators and all Congress critters.

Most people would have to pass those states to get to DC. Would make more sense to just occupy DC.
